

DORMANT ACCOUNT POLICY

Client account will be considered as inactive if the Client does not trade for a period of Six months. Calculation will be done each day and those Clients who have not traded even a single time during last Six months from that day will be considered as in inactive. Later on, we sent confirmation to the RMS team to inactive the code. Further whenever clients wants to execute trade or wish to activate the account, he may write or email us in this regard to make the account active again and the same is done from our end after due verification
